

Component	Description
Course Title	Practice of International Trade and Documentary Credit
Course Code	MC-ITD-101
Version:	1.0
Evidence of Demand	International trade methods, particularly Documentary Credit (L/C), account for 11-15% of global trade. In Bangladesh, banking is the conduit for cross-border capital; professionals must master ICC rules and local regulations (GFET, Import Policy Order) to minimize disputes, especially in the RMG sector.
Purpose and Objectives	To equip participants with a fundamental understanding of trade methods, the mechanics of Documentary Credits, and the application of international rules like UCP 600 and Incoterms 2020. Focuses on trade finance, documentation, and compliance with Bangladesh Bank guidelines.
Syllabus Summary	1. Introduction to Trade: Methods of Trade and basic L/C principles. 2. Regulatory Framework: UCP 600, ISBP 800, Incoterms 2020, and Local Regulations (GFET). 3. L/C Mechanics: Roles of parties and MT700 structure. 4. Documentation: Mandatory checklists (LCAF, Invoice, Transport Docs) and handling discrepancies. 5. Settlement: Export/Import financing (UPAS, EDF) and Back-to-Back LCs.
Learning Outcomes	Understand international trade activities; master L/C issuance and document examination under UCP 600; analyze pre and post-shipment financing; and implement compliance with Bangladesh Bank foreign exchange guidelines.
Target Audience	Professionals without a banking background, business graduates aiming for trade desk roles, and entrepreneurs managing export/import operations.
Entry Qualifications	Prospective candidates for graduate and post-graduate students, preferably from a business background.

Progression Pathway	Opportunities in Foreign Trade departments of private and public banks, as well as logistics and trade-based corporations.
